Fees, expenses, or other amounts payable

We may charge an adviser fee for our services.

For residential lending products (ie; home loans), we may charge a fee for the financial advice service provided to a client where a client repays a residential home loan within a defined time (being 27 months) from the date it is drawn down, but this will be discussed and agreed with you beforehand.

Whether a fee will be charged, the manner in which it will be charged, and the date by which the fee will be payable will be advised when the financial advice service is provided to the client.

Conflicts of interest and commissions or other incentives

Personal Lending Products

We may receive initial commission from the lenders who provide personal loan products. If you decide to take out a personal loan, the lender may pay commission based on the amount of loan settled with that lender.

Payment or Lifestyle Protection Insurance Products and Mechanical Breakdown Insurance Products

We receive initial commission from the lenders or insurance companies who provide Payment or Lifestyle Protection Insurance Products and Mechanical Breakdown Insurance Products. If you decide to take out one of these insurance policies, then the lender or insurance company may pay commission based on the premium that you pay.

Residential Lending Products

We, and Astute may receive commission from the lenders who provide residential lending products. If you decide to take out a residential loan, then the lender may pay commission based on the amount of loan settled with that lender.

General Insurance Products

We, and Insure 247 will receive commission from the insurance companies who provide general insurance products. If you decide to take out a general insurance policy, then the insurance company will pay commission based on the premium that you pay.

All our advisers are salaried advisers. In addition to their base salary, an employee may be entitled to commission, in accordance with the Performance Based Development & Incentive Plan. This plan is based on the adviser's level of performance across a balanced scorecard of individual, customer, team, and business metrics and compliance with applicable legislation, regulation, and the Code of Professional Conduct for Financial Advice Services.

From time to time, various product providers (described previously) may also reward us and/or Astute and/or Insure 247 for the overall business provided to them. They may give tickets to sports events, hampers, or other incentives. To ensure that our financial advisers prioritise the client's interests above their own, we follow an advice process that ensures our recommendations are made based on the client's personal goals and circumstances. All our financial advisers undergo annual professional development refresher training about how to manage conflicts of interest. We maintain registers of conflicts of interests, and the gifts and incentives received.

Complaints handling and dispute resolution

We take all complaints seriously and work to resolve them as quickly as possible.

If you are unhappy with our financial advice service, and wish to make a complaint, please contact your financial adviser so he or she can try to put things right.

If you do not feel comfortable discussing your concerns with your adviser, you can:

- Call us on 09 913 3011, or 0508 629 5626 (toll free) between the hours of 8:30 am - 5 pm weekdays
- Email us at info@maxmoneygroup.co.nz
- Write to us at Unit D1, 27-29 William Pickering Drive, Rosedale, Auckland, 0632, New Zealand addressing your letter to the attention of the Managing Director.

How your Complaint will be handled

We will deal with your complaint using our internal complaints handling process. Accordingly,

- We will investigate your complaint by analysing the information you provided us; and
- We may contact you to get additional information about your complaint.

We aim to resolve your complaint within 40 days of its receipt and advise you, in writing, our proposed resolution to your complaint.

If we cannot resolve your complaint within 40 days of receipt (or any additional time you have given us thereafter, at our request) you can contact the Financial Services Complaints Ltd (FSCL).

FSCL provides an independent external dispute resolution service to consumers with complaints about their financial service providers. This service will cost you nothing and will help us to investigate or resolve your complaint if it is not resolved to your satisfaction using our internal complaints process.

Duties

We, Astute, Insure 247, and our financial advisers are bound by the following duties under the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013 to:

- meet the standards of competence, knowledge, and skill set out in the Code of Professional Conduct for Financial Advice Services (Code of Conduct), which form part of the wider regulatory regime for financial advice and ensure we have the expertise necessary to provide you with advice; and
- give priority to your interests by taking all reasonable steps to ensure that the advice given to you is not materially influenced by our own interests or the interests of any other person connected with the giving of advice; and
- exercise care, diligence, and skill that a prudent person engaged in the occupation of giving related financial advice would in the same circumstances; and
- meet the standards of ethical behaviour, conduct, and client care set out in the Code of Conduct, to treat you as we should and to provide you with suitable advice
